3. Reports from the Chairs and Committees

3a) Chair Bill Foulkes

Chair Foulkes thanked everyone for being flexible to accommodate the new meeting date and time due to the weather. He thanked Rhode Island College for hosting the meeting and noted that it was the date of their biggest fundraiser gala. The next meeting on April 25, 2018 will begin at 8AM, and AGB will be making a presentation on their progress. Chair Foulkes also noted that there would be a discussion and vote of a minor tuition increase to help the institutions maintain the momentum on their student success initiatives. Also asked the Presidents to give an update on adult education at their institutions. Lastly, there is preliminary data on the open textbook initiative that show a $3 million savings over the past 18 months.

3b) Chair Barbara Cottam

Chair Cottam highlighted three areas for the Council. First, the Rhode Island students who walked out to demonstrate about school safety. She also commented on the importance of student voice and thanked everyone who helped and for all the teachers who were engaged in supporting the students. Second, she shared that the State of the Education was held on March 19, 2018 - there was time for students to ask questions after Commissioner Wagner's speech, and she thanked Commissioner Dann-Messier for attending. Third, she encouraged everyone to attend the Spring PrepareRI Summit on March 24, 2018. She noted that Governor Raimondo will be in attendance.

3c) Finance and Facilities Committee Chair

Chair Crosby shared that the Finance and Facilities Committee met on March 1, 2018, at Rhode Island College. They discussed RIC's upcoming capital plan, the process for the performance funding plan, and the budget process for the upcoming FY2020 budget.

During the meeting, President Sánchez gave an overview of updates to the Campus Master Plan. Working with the architectural firm of Saratoga and Associates, RIC continues to focus on several short-term goals, including ongoing renovations to the Welcome Center, Craig-Lee Hall, Horace Mann Hall and the Students Union. Future projects include renovations to the Clarke Science Hall and Whipple Hall, as well as potentially a new Student Success Center. President Sánchez also reviewed RIC's successful efforts to improve energy efficiency and reduce utility costs.

Chair Crosby also shared that the Performance Funding Working Group has made progress in designing a process that demonstrates that the institutions value accountability. The group will present a draft set of guidelines for discussion at the next Finance and Facilities Committee meeting on April 12, 2018.

Chair Crosby made note that the Finance and Facilities Committee voted to recommend the Council's approval of a Uniform Real Estate License Estoppel Certificate, Nondisturbance and Subordination Agreement between the Council on Postsecondary Education / University of Rhode Island and the Rhode Island Alpha Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity Alumni Associations, Inc. (Action Item C on March 22, 2018 agenda)

3c) Personnel Committee Chair

Chair Green shared that on March 6, 2018, the Personnel Committee met and Commissioner Dann-Messier gave an update on the staff organizational chart for DHEA and restructuring plans for the office. The next Personnel meetings will be on April 3, 2018 and April 18, 2018.
